

STAINED GLASS

Crucifixion

Florence Avenue Foursquare Santa Fe Springs, California

Modern and impressionistic, Hogan Studios designs in light and color using the same techniques the first stained glass artists used. We let the glass speak for itself and only painted where necessary. At Hogan Studios we work in mouth blown glass, Tiffany reproduction glass and Dalle DeVerre. The Crucifixion in Santa Fe Springs is our signature piece as a studio because of what it represents; Our life in Christ looking forward to the Resurrection.
